

ST PATRICKS DAY IS A BAD DAY FOR COONS

Composed by Irving
Jones WRITER OF GET YOUR MONEY'S WORTH

sung by LEW Dockstader in Primrose & Dockstaders
MAMMOUTH MINSTRELS

Published by Permission of a Sol & Bloom owner of copyright

"St. Patrick's Day is a Bad Day for Coons."

Composed by IRVING JONES.
Writer of "Get Your Money's Worth," etc.

Moderato.

INTRO.

[Till Ready.]

1. There is a cer - tain day that's in the year, All coons should not for-
2. Just then a high-toned yel - low dark - y came Cake walk - ing down the get, That one is St. Pat-rick's Day. I'm think-ing of the last one street; He had on a pair of yel - low gat - er tops on his yet. On last sev'n - teenth day of March, A - bout the hour of feet, He had on swell yel - low gloves, Al - so a yel - low hint, I felt quite sick, but I yelled quick, "Let me have a glass of creme-de-menthe.

gun, If you show him a sham-rock now, That yel-low coon is al-ways sure to run.

CHORUS.

St. Pat-rick's Day's a bad day for coons, The on - ly safe plan for us is bal - loons,

Yel - low coons must not be seen, If you drink, drink some-thing green, St.

Patrick's Day's a bad day for coons.

St. coons.

